

BREWSTER HIGH SCHOOL
2015 SUMMER READING
ONE SCHOOL, ONE BOOK

“In the case of good books, the point is not to see how many of them you can get through, but rather how many can get through to you.”

– Mortimer J. Adler

Required Text for all students: The Other Wes Moore: One Name Two Fates by Wes Moore

Two kids named Wes Moore were born blocks apart within a year of each other. Both grew up fatherless in similar Baltimore neighborhoods and had difficult childhoods; both hung out on street corners with their crews; both ran into trouble with the police. How, then, did one grow up to be a Rhodes Scholar, decorated veteran, White House Fellow, and business leader, while the other ended up a convicted murderer serving a life sentence?

Assignment: Although students do not have an official writing assignment to accompany The Other Wes Moore, it is strongly suggested that they annotate or take notes while reading in order to participate in class discussion and complete assignments when they return to school in September.

- ✓ Students enrolled in an honors level, college level, or AP level course will have additional summer reading assignments.

Have a great summer!
